The Journey Continues

On September 29th, 2025, our second Transnational Project Meeting (TPM) will take place in Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina. This milestone gathering will bring partners together once again to reflect on our progress, share results, and set the course for the next steps in XXIAdults.

Spotlight on Our Network

Our partnership brings together diverse expertise from Spain, Greece, Poland, Portugal, Germany, and Bosnia & Herzegovina. Each country contributes its own perspective—from local public administrations and NGOs to research centres and adult education providers.

Together, we are shaping a shared European vision for inclusive, modern adult education.

What We Learned

Through the mapping of centres and collection of good practices, we gained valuable insights into the realities of adult education across Europe:

Centers act as community hubs:
from intergenerational neighbourhood houses in Poland to ICT-focused centres in Greece, they show how adult education goes far beyond the classroom.

Digitalisation is a driving force:
many good practices focus on using technology creatively, whether through WhatsApp-based micro-learning, AI in language education, or national networks of digital mentors.

Openness to cooperation is strong:
nearly all centres expressed readiness to share methods, host visits, and mentor peers, ensuring that our work will ripple beyond the consortium.

Why did we do this? Because identifying real, tested practices and motivated centres ensures that the upcoming Guide and Platform are not only theoretical but also rooted in lived experiences. The outcome will be a practical, adaptable set of tools for educators and learners across Europe.
