Connecting Europe, Sharing Ideas, Creating Change

Learning and collaborating across borders

XXIAdults brings together partners from six European countries to work towards a common goal: adapting adult education to the needs of the 21st century. Through transnational mobilities and regular online meetings, the consortium shares expertise, develops project results, exchanges good practices and makes decisions together.

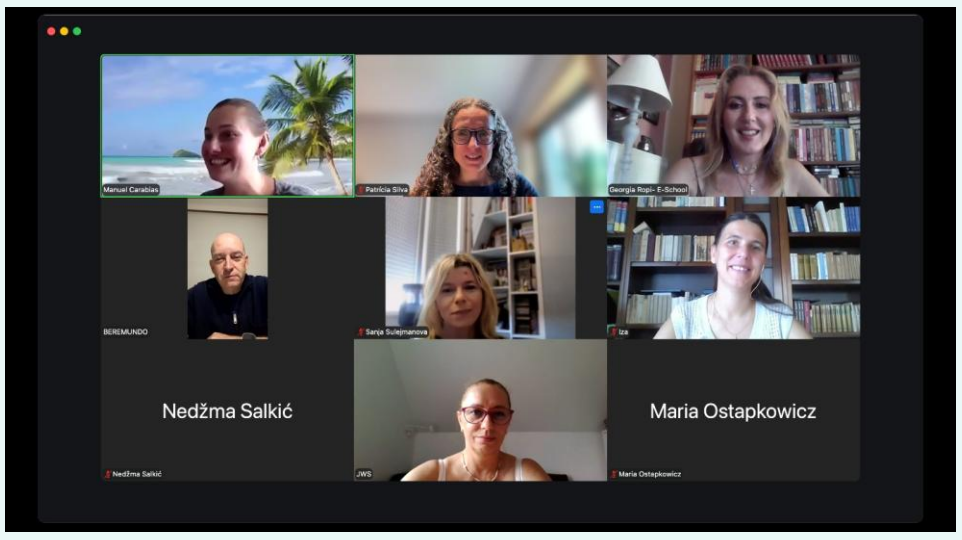
Why meet in person?

- ✓ Strengthen cooperation and trust
- ✓ Exchange knowledge, ideas and good practices
- ✓ Review and develop project results

What partners achieve together

- ✓ Coordinate the next stages of the project
- ✓ Monitor progress and ensure quality
- ✓ Promote sustainable ways of working together

• ONLINE MEETINGS



Regular monthly online meetings keep the consortium connected throughout the project.

- ✓ Monitor progress and deadlines
- ✓ Discuss challenges and solutions
- ✓ Share materials and feedback
- ✓ Coordinate tasks and responsibilities
- ✓ Review and improve project results
- ✓ Maintain continuous communication across borders

From our screens to our meeting rooms, every conversation contributes to the same goal.

↻ A CONTINUOUS CYCLE OF COOPERATION

MEET → SHARE → CREATE → REVIEW → IMPROVE → MOVE FORWARD

Physical and virtual meetings support the development of XXIAdults resources and strengthen cooperation between all partner organisations.

SIX COUNTRIES. SEVEN PARTNERS. ONE SHARED VISION.

Spain • Greece • Poland • Portugal • Germany • Bosnia & Herzegovina

Together, we connect people, share knowledge and shape the future of adult education.
